

Take Captives

"Humans loud. Humans stinky. Gor clever. Gor wait in forest and listen. Warherd attack as one. This moon, gor eat manflesh."

- Take captives players can Ambush other armies. This Narrative battle lets you earn Goal Points quickly and kidnap opposing leaders.
- Kidnapped leaders can take the place of preparations in the perform rituals goal.
- Triggering an Ambush is a Major Event.
- This goal's Minor Events represent raids. These give you a chance to turn one Goal point into two.

Narrative battles

- Ambush!: Launch a surprise attack! Think Total War Warhammer ambush battles.
 - Any of your opponent's units that are slain in combat or run down are “captured” and provide one Goal Point each.
 - Your opponent will have two baggage trains that can be captured for one Goal Point each.
 - If the opponent's general is slain in combat or run down, they are Kidnapped. If you also have the Perform Ritual goal, you are considered to be fully prepared for the ritual while the leader is in your custody.

Major events

- Trigger a Narrative Battle: You can select one other player and engage them in Ambush!
 - No player can be the victim of an Ambush! more than once per campaign.

Minor events

- Raiding party: You have a 3/4 chance of winning one Goal Point for each of your other goals and a 1/4 chance of nothing happening.
 - These points cannot be used to trigger additional events this turn.
